TECHART unveils exclusive GTsport customization concept for Porsche 911 Turbo S at Bangkok Int. Motor Show 2024.

Bangkok, Thailand - March 26, 2024 - Embracing the spirit of automotive excellence, TECHART proudly introduces the highly anticipated TECHART GTsport, a limited customization concept tailored specifically for the Porsche 911 Turbo S (992). Following its successful debut at the Tokyo Auto Salon 2024, the GTsport is poised to make its mark at the Bangkok International Motor Show from March 27 to April 7, 2024.

The TECHART GTsport is a modular individualization concept for the 992 series Porsche 911 Turbo S models, limited to just 30 units worldwide. Its defined scope of customization allows for a high level of individuality that sets the GTsport apart from any stock 911 Turbo S. Customers have the option to choose from a range of GTsport refinement add-ons to tailor their personal GTsport specification to perfection with individual details.

The TECHART GTsport Signature Scope offers an array of highlights, including a front apron with side canards, a rear diffuser, a carbon aero front hood, TECHART wheels, power enhancements and more. With the modular architecture of the GTsport personalization program, configuring a TECHART GTsport is an exceptionally easy task, despite the endless TECHART range.

The comprehensive scope of customization includes a range of meticulously crafted components and performance upgrades:

TECHART front apron and front spoiler with insert

TECHART aero front hood with air shaft

TECHART side skirts

TECHART side air intakes

TECHART rear diffuser with insert

TECHART air outlet for rear apron

TECHART Rear Spoiler I

20-/21-inch TECHART Formula VI Race or TECHART Formula VII Race forged wheels

TECHART engine performance Kit (+ 60 hp/+ 100 Nm)

TECHART GTsport Add-On Interior
